Pine Shores Announces New Art Class Schedule

MANAHAWKIN, NJ - Pine Shores Art Association continues the limited reopening of its Manahawkin studio, but new state and national virus constraints are directing some schedule changes to follow careful COVID-19 avoidance precautions. In-person studio class sizes are limited to conform to safe social distancing. Virtual Zoom classes are live and include interaction with the nationally recognized instructors.

The January 6-27 classes in Drawing, Oils and Acrylics have been rescheduled to Spring. Here is the up-to-date art class schedule for Pine Shores:

Pine Shores Art Association has been an Ocean County cultural resource presenting year-round fine arts classes and community outreach programs for the past 40 years.

Pine Shores Art Association received funding this year from a grant administered by the Ocean County Cultural & Heritage Commission from funds granted by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, a division of the Department of State. PSAA receives generous support from these organizations and from Stafford Township.
