Pine Shores Art Association

Artistically Speaking

From the President Linda Saladino

Won't you hop on our volunteer train? PSAA needs a few good people to help, especially with Membership (Nancy Edwards will work with you). PSAA is the wonderful organization it is due to our dedicated volunteers. Come Do Your Own Thing on a Wednesday and to a Gen'l Meeting on a Monday evening and see if there is a place for you to help. Happy Mother's Day to all and let us pause to remember our fallen heroes on Memorial Day amidst the BBQs and fun. Linda.

ART PATRON SHOW UPDATE Reminding all you generous Patrons, both past and new, that this is our MAJOR fundraiser of the year to keep Pine Shores a vibrant art source in Southern Ocean County.

This is your time to get in the application form and your check for $100! Artist donations of valuable paintings continues, so don't delay as the limited Patron spots are beginning to fill up. If you want to see what wonderful artwork you might bring home from the July 28th Gala, go to Pine Shores website and click on the link to Patron Show. Create your "wish list" from the website for which painting to select as a Patron, or attend the Open House Sunday, July 14 from 1-3 pm to see the collection hanging (or Sundays 1-3 & Wednesdays 11-3 from June 27 until the Gala). A Patron sign-up form is attached.

Congratulations to Winners of our Black & White Show: Jim Maloney 1st Place, Paul Hartelius, 2nd Place, Carol Skiles, 3rd Place.

PSAA's June gallery exhibit will celebrate the exceptional work of the late Frederick Smith, a long-time member of Pine Shores.

This program is made possible in part by a grant administered by the Ocean County Cultural & Heritage Commission from funds granted by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts.

Special thanks to STAFFORD TOWNSHIP for their ongoing support to PSAA.

Summer Art Shows Still Available With Entry Fees:

8/24, St Mary's Art Show, call Linda 609-660-8062 to join

Two visiting teachers will be here this session who capture the essence of beautiful watercolor art. From May 20 to 22, Mick McAndrews' "Sophisticated Simplicity" shows how interesting shapes make strong compositions while keeping an airy visual language that dances through your work. Then on June 24 and 25, Marie Natale will guide you in being "Loose & Luminous", first with fabulous flowers, and the second day depicting animals and pets, showing how to create soft fur, sleek muscles, effective bird feathers, and eyes that shine and capture you. All the May and June sessions are great, including Tom Rutledge showing how to really capture trees! See full class listings below.

PSAA Board Meetings – Wed May 1 & Jun 12 at 9 am
