

As artists sheltering in place, we're lucky to have art to keep us occupied and inspired. Paul Hartelius suggests we share photos of what we're working on, and Dennis will make a PSAA web page for this.

And just for fun, let's have another page on the website for a

Pine Shores Spring Peepathon!

Marshmallow Peeps are stacked up in area grocery stores at this time of year, and some people have used these seasonal treats to create amusing scenes. Let's do that too! Art theme Peeps would suit us well...

Andy Warpeep with his famous "Peepalyn"

Or how about performing arts...dance, theatre, movies and music....

It could be anything, You're certainly full of imagination and creativity. So when you're buying groceries, please grab a box of Peeps and make something silly to share with us.

Email it to dfmillar@gmail.com with the subject line "for the PSAA Peeps Page"

We can't wait to see all your creations - paintings and Peeps!
