

Note from Pine Shores President...

Seasons' Greetings, My Friends,

I think the greatest gift we at Pine Shores all share is our friendship. We're very fortunate to have each other to share the good times as well as the not so good.

This time of year, the feeling that we are part of a warm, accepting group is especially important. Many of us, myself included, came to Pine Shores during uncertain times and were lucky enough to be welcomed in.

And Stafford's gift to us 40 or so years ago was our home at 94 Stafford. Now they're taking care of us again and remodeling that ramshackle old building into a clean, bright, stylish, (not to mention safe) place to hone our art skills as well as our friendships.

We're very lucky group of people., but of course we make our own luck.

The Board is confident we'll be nestled back in the building by early January, happy as clams, but please make no assumptions until you hear from the Board. As we all know --- things happen.

Fingers crossed.
