Note from Pine Shores President Linda Saladino...

If you are like me, you probably are working hard to get your painting ready for the "Spring in Bloom" show in May. What an uplifting show this is and I am eagerly waiting to see all the beautiful art on the walls and on the stands.

As the weather gets nicer, plein air painting will be a welcome option for many of us. If the weather ever gets warmer.

I hope everyone enjoys the holidays and being with family and friends. Nothing is more special than the times we spend with those we love. I wish you all good health and happy painting!
